Daily Prayer Card

"Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 NIV

Day 1: Eastern Nazarene College: to remain true to Christ and His Kingdom
Day 2: Board of Trustees: for wisdom and understanding as they determine policy and provide spiritual direction for the College
Day 3: Presidential Search Committee: that they would seek God and the counsel of the Holy Spirit as they identify a new leader for ENC
Day 4: Students: that each one may grow in knowledge, faith, and self-understanding
Day 5: Vice-Presidents and Deans: to be good stewards of time, talent, and energy as they manage the affairs of the College, encourage their employees, and administer policies and programs
Day 6: Faculty: to help students see the unity of all knowledge in Jesus Christ, to pursue intellectual and spiritual growth
Day 7: Rest for all those working diligently to continue the work of the Christ through ENC
Day 8: Alumni Council: for insight as they represent alumni concerns and support ENC
Day 9: Alumni in Christian Work: for pastors, missionaries, and all God’s servants who proclaim the Gospel through teaching, preaching, and administering in the growth of Christ’s Kingdom
Day 10: College Staff: that they may be satisfied and challenged in their work, encourage students spiritually, and exercise their abilities with integrity and sensitivity toward one another
Day 11: Office of Spiritual Development as they provide pastoral care, discipleship groups, biblical preaching and service opportunities for the entire ENC community
Day 12: Alumni in the Armed Forces: for the Lord’s protection and strength as they serve our country
Day 13: Athletic Teams: that they may experience spiritual growth through sports, share the love of Christ through actions and words, and safety in travel to competitions
Day 14: Missionary Kids and International Students: as they adjust and become acquainted with American culture and living away from their family and friends
Day 15: Alumni in Civic Leadership: as they perform tangible acts of service for others, providing leadership that is both just and compassionate
Day 16: Residence Life: that residence directors and resident assistants will have wisdom to ascertain the needs of students in the dorms and outside the classroom
Day 17: Campus Facilities: that people who live, work, play, and worship in College facilities would take care to use them wisely and effectively
Day 18: Student Leaders: that they will serve the campus and fellow students wisely
Day 19: Financial Needs: that God’s people will faithfully continue to support His work at ENC
Day 20: Summer Ministries: for students who travel and share Christ throughout the summer
Day 21: Foundation Board: for the Directors as they make strategic investment decisions
Day 22: Your Classmates: that God will work in and through the lives of your closest college friends
Day 23: Student Financial Needs: that no one will have to leave school due to financial hardship, and for summer and part-time jobs
Day 24: College and Student Publications: that The Christian Scholar, as well as student-run publications such as Veritas and Nautilus may all be used to honor the Lord in communicating news about Eastern Nazarene College
Day 25: A Capella Choir & Gospel Choir: that their music may be an offering to God
Day 26: International Alumni: for those who are using their ENC education to work for the kingdom of God across the globe
Day 27: Mentorship & Accountability: that a culture of mentoring and accountability would flourish on campus and continue as students graduate and engage in life in their new communities
Day 28: Adult and Graduate Studies: for preparation of students who will be ministering to others in demanding fields
Day 29: Alumni and young alumni: that they will take comfort in God’s provision for them as they make life-shaping job and family decisions; Older alumni: that they will experience God’s continuing love and care for them as they run the race of faith
Day 30: Office of Multicultural Affairs: for grace and insight as they serve our students of color, and that the College more fully reflect the ethnic and cultural diversity of the Kingdom of God
Day 31: Unity: As a body that we might draw closer to each other and to our Lord daily