

Master of Education in Higher Education Administration

The Higher Education Administration program at Eastern Nazarene College is a reflective, practitioner based, flexible educational experience that prepares its graduates to be student centered leaders on their campuses. Graduates of our program experience a learning environment that fits into their busy schedule and one that offers the opportunity to apply knowledge gained from coursework to their professional or graduate level responsibilities.

Benefits Include:

- Hybrid Model of Instruction
- One night a week (on campus every other week)
- Generalist Focus
- Diverse, dedicated faculty practitioners
- Intentional advising and mentorship
- As little as 22 months to completion
- Christian Identity
- GA positions and scholarships available
- Affordable Tuition ($602/credit)
- No GRE Requirement

Our curriculum promotes mastery of essential skills that enable professionals to:

- Serve as an effective administrator at any level of higher education
- Apply research, theory and data driven decision making to evaluate programs, practices and achieve student success outcomes
- Create co-curricular experiences that compliment academic pursuits and provide opportunity for growth
- Advocate for and model a holistic approach to individual and community development
- Address issues of equity, inclusion, and access through examination of research, policy, and campus practice
- Understand the history, organization, legal principles, and future directions of the profession
- Manage and develop campus resources, budgets and strategic plans
- Solve problems and manage conflict that require effective communication, thoughtful decision making and coping with ambiguity

Whether you are just getting started or seeking to continue your journey as an administrator in higher education, we are confident a Master's in Higher Education Administration from Eastern Nazarene College will be a fit for you.
