The internship supervision fee will be paid to faculty supervisors at Eastern Nazarene College who agree to supervise student interns in their specific academic departments. The internship supervision fee does not get paid to the internship site supervisors (unless a faculty member IS the site supervisor).

In addition, the supervision fee will NOT be paid to internship faculty supervisors until AFTER the student internship grade has been submitted to the registrar's office. Therefore, the supervision fees will be paid to faculty after each semester or summer term has been completed.

When internships are added to fall or spring semester, as long as they don't force a student into an overload situation (over 17 credits), the student will ONLY be charged the Internship Fee (as listed above).

HOWEVER, internships are subject to standard overload fees ($600+ per credit) if they bump a student over 17 credits in the fall or spring semester. Also, summer internship credit is charged at the summer tuition rate ($405+ per credit). Please consult the student handbook for the exact charges (overload and summer tuition rates).
